SOCIETY N

Sunday evening at the Heber First Ward Bishop George Holmes presented Mont Perschon as a graduate from Primary and asked that he be voted on to become a MIA Scout and a Deacon. Bishop Holmes also asked for the release of YMIA Superintendent, Neldon Jacobson, Joe McPhie, Gene W. Gardner and Secretary James M. Carroll with a vote of thanks for their efficient work. Sustained as the new presidency were Supt. Gene W. Gardner, Daryl Shumway and Guy Scribner; James M. Carroll as Secretary. Paul Rasband gave a good talk as did Kent Berg and Elden Wright. Those who came to hear Paul speak from out of his ward were: Mima and Dan Thacker, Joe and Julia Thacker and family, Granger; Vern and Suzanne Thacker and family, San Jose, California; Colette Stott, Meadow, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rasband, Mark and Merle Rasband, Mary Bacon, Jane Pinter, Joey and Amy, Harris and Phyllis Parcell and family, Ruth Witt. All these and others met following church at Vera and Joe Rasband's home to visit and enjoy refreshments.
